

Why Choose Page One for Your Paper Needs?

At Page One, we focus on meeting all your eDiscovery and trial preparation needs throughout litigation. As part of this service, we provide a paper discovery solutions team who can make sure your hard copy data gets into the process seamlessly.

CONSULTATIVE APPROACH

We work with you one-on-one at the beginning of every project. We want to gather all the necessary information to ensure accuracy. Our experienced team can provide technical expertise to certify your project is completed in the best possible manner and to your specifications.

PROVEN QUALITY ASSURANCE

We can provide your company with productions ready to provide to opposing parties that won't be returned for corrections. Before your project leaves our facility, it is checked for accuracy twice during the final inspection. Our workflows, technology, and experienced team enables us to meet your deadlines at the highest quality.

SECURE

At Page One, we understand the importance of preservation and privacy. All Page One employees who handle client data have undergone background checks and are HIPAA certified. All Page One employees have mandatory monthly cybersecurity training.

When your data uploads have completed, you may no longer have a need for the original hard copy documents. We also offer services to destroy the documents and provide certificates of destruction.

EXPERIENCE

Since 2006, we have been providing legal copying, scanning, and more to various law firms, businesses, and government agencies nationally. No matter how complicated or extensive your project is, our dedicated team can handle it. Why are we so confident? Because chances are that we've seen it before. We understand production specs and our proven processes ensure that each stage of production is implemented and tracked.

A ONE STOP SHOP

We are currently in a climate where documents need to be digitized. Our ability to provide eDiscovery gives our clients a competitive edge. We can give our clients instant access to their files in our Relativity environment. You no longer have to worry about transferring data between firms. We can handle all of your paper and eDiscovery needs at Page One.
